

“Field Visit: Primary Healthcare Centre.”

Mahavir Institute of Pharmacy recently arranged a field visit on 11th March 2024 to the primary health care in Talegaon, Nashik for D pharmacy students with the aim of familiarizing them with various medical devices used in healthcare settings and providing insights into the current health care landscape.

During the visit students had the opportunity to observe and learn about different medical device is employed in the primary health care setting including diagnostic tools monitoring equipments and basic medical instruments they gained practical exposure to the utilisation of this device in patient care and treatment. Additionally students for brief on the present day scenario of healthcare including prevalent health issues challenges faced by primary health care centres and the importance of SSC bill and affordable healthcare services in rural areas the visit provided valuable hands on learning experience and enhanced student understanding of role of medical devices in healthcare delivery at the grassroots level overall it was an educational and enlightening experience that broadband student perspective on healthcare practices and importance of primary health care services.

Prepared by:

Ms. Nikita Rathod

Principal